

THE MEMORY OF THE PHOTOGRAPHIC EYE

Câmpia Turzii Stadium tribune centenary. Arch over time 1911-2011

1911 - The original stand of the Cluj city stadium, which seats 1500 people.

2011 - The modernized stand of Câmpia Turzii, which seats 2700 people after its relocation in 1960 and modernization.

Ștefan Somogy (silver medalist at the London Olympic Games in 1908, in the high jump event, 1.88 m), an argument for building the city stadium, in 1911.

Ion Moina, multiple national champion, in a 100 m running race in the city stadium, in 1956.

"Potcoava" (The Horseshoe) was built in 1961-62, then demolished in 2008-2009 in order to make way to a modern stadium.

The model of the new "Cluj Arena" stadium

2011 - The "Cluj Arena" stadium under construction, preparing for this year's inauguration.

Editors
Octavian Vidu
Traian Bocu